

Honoring our Nation's Heroes on Memorial Day

By Rep. Stephanie Herseth Sandlin

May 22, 2009

On Memorial Day 2009, we are united as one nation in honoring the men and women who have fallen in

On this somber day of remembrance, we also recognize the heroes who are still with us, many of whom

In addition to honoring heroes from conflicts past, Memorial Day is an opportunity to remember those wh

As a nation, we have made a commitment to take care of our soldiers while they are serving, when they

As Chairwoman of the Economic Opportunity Subcommittee, I have worked extensively on the Post-9/1

Finally, I will continue working with my colleagues in Congress and the administration to ensure the VA n

On Memorial Day, we all stand underneath one flag and remember those who left behind their families to

